Wonderful Native Plants

Native plants were evolving with native mammals, birds, bees and pollinators centuries before Europeans came here. Now these native plant species are dwindling as are the creatures we love that depend on them for food and as host plants used for reproduction of beneficial insects. These in turn provide beautiful butterflies, food for baby birds, and pest control for harmful insects. Lovely native plants also help the earth as they absorb water runoff, and delete the need for herbicides, pesticides and fertilizers which kill friendly soil microbes, insects, and earthworms.

Give Mother Earth a thumbs-up today and order some native plants or just come to the sale. Most of our items are not sold in retail nurseries. Browsers are always welcome! Type in your plant of interest on the internet to find images and more plant information.

Order early! Supplies are limited. Orders are filled in the order received. In the event of shortages, you will have a choice of substitution or refund. Other plants may be available for substitution at the pickup location.

About Wild Ones

Wild Ones is a national not-for-profit organization with local chapters that promote the benefits of growing native plants. The $40 tax deductible, yearly membership includes the New Member Wild Ones Handbook, a great resource for beginning native gardeners. Other membership levels are available on the website.

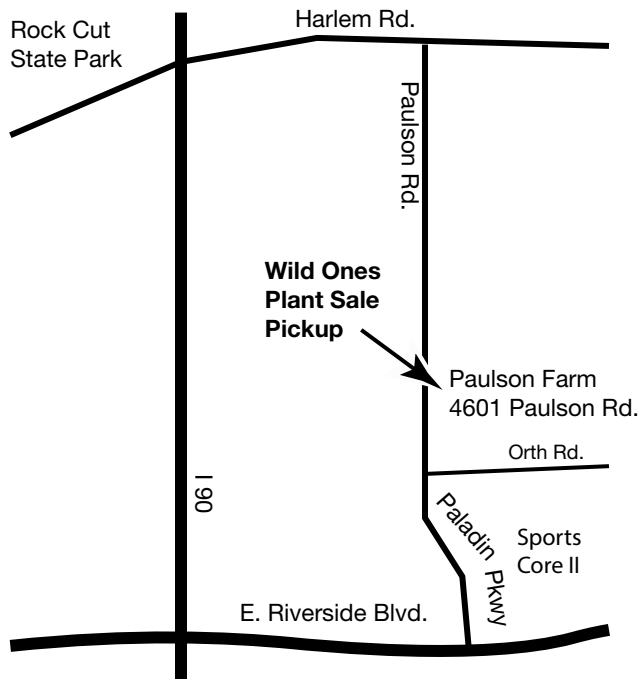

Wild Ones Rock River Valley Chapter is the largest and one of the most active with 225 memberships. We host expert speakers at programs, which are free and open to the public, as well as members only programs. Educational activities are funded by proceeds from the annual plant sales. For more information about joining, contact our Membership Chair at membershipworrvc@gmail.com
